

THREATENING OF WITNESSES IS CHARGED

IS MADE AT TRIAL OF GREEKS YESTERDAY BY ATTORNEY WRIGHT

Tells Court That Some of Witnesses for Defense Have Been Threatened and Intimidated—Jury Was Completed Yesterday Afternoon—Opening Statements Monday

(By The Associated Press)
QUINCY, Ill., June 3.—Something of a sensation was created in the trial of the 29 Greek laborers here for the murder of Sheriff Lashbrook and Deputies Neff and Utter at Frederick, Schuyler county, when on the completion of the jury this afternoon, chief counsel Walter W. Wright, for the defense, reported to Judge Wolfe that some of the witnesses for the Greeks had been threatened and otherwise intimidated.

The twelfth man had just been accepted by both sides and the jury sent from the room at the request of Attorney Wright. He then complained to the court that the father of Carl Neff, one of the deputies slain and for which the Greeks are now on trial, had threatened several of the witnesses for the defense. He also said that other friends of the dead officers had been intimidating witnesses for the Greeks.

Judge Wolfe took the names of those who had made the alleged threats and the witnesses and will have them before him.

State's Attorney Mournings of Schuyler county said it was all news to the prosecution and that he regretted exceedingly if anything of this kind had been going on. He promised to personally investigate the complaint.

SENATOR STANLEY ASSAILS HARDING IN SENATE SPEECH

Accuses President of Attempting to Muzzle the Press

WASHINGTON, June 3.—President Harding and Attorney General Daugherty were assailed today in the senate by Senator Stanley, Democrat in connection with statements certified yesterday to President Harding with respect to a senate attack on Secretary Hoover and to assertions made by Mr. Daugherty in his Chicago address yesterday as to the policy to be followed in filling the 24 new judgeships.

Senator Stanley interpreting the president's remarks on the basis of some newspaper accounts to refer to criticisms of all cabinet officers, including Mr. Daugherty said Mr. Harding was attempting "to stifle if not to muzzle" the press. The senator accused the attorney general of having by his Chicago speech served public notice on applicants for the judgeships that they must say anything in criticism of Mr. Daugherty if they expected appointment.

Reading from dispatch in Philadelphia, Public Ledger which was stated that the president had taken a "two fisted fling at the political blackguards," who attacked executive officers, Senator Stanley wanted to know who were these "political blackguards" who are assailing the attorney general.

There are two members of congress, he said, "who on yesterday wore the colors and the uniforms of a soldier. Is it possible that a genial, self-poised, courteous gentleman handling so high an office would so far forget himself in an effort to shield another to forget to shield himself."

Says This Is Not Austria.
Quoting from a despatch in the Philadelphia Ledger in which it was stated that the president believed newspapermen and newspapers performed a public service in putting on the breaks, in the publication of attacks on executive officers, Mr. Stanley said, he would tell the president that "this is not Austria; this is not Prussia; this is the once free America at least."

Mr. Stanley referring to Attorney General Daugherty's speech before the Illinois Bar Association said Mr. Daugherty had admonished those seeking high offices that the president had agreed with the Attorney General that in the matter of selection of judges those supporting the candidates "ought to consult with us." Mr. Daugherty and Warren G. Harding, the president of the United States.

WAR ROMANCE ENDS IN DEATH AT KANSAS CITY

Nurse Kills Lover and Then Attempts to Take Own Life

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 3.—A romance which sprang from the war and mutual interest in Esperanto, the international language ended tragically today for Frank W. Anderson, floor manager in a local department store and Peggy Marie L. Beal, a nurse of Dayton, Ohio. Patrolmen, responding to a call from a hotel where guests heard two shots and found Anderson dead on a bed, with a bullet wound in the back of his head.

On the floor, a bullet hole in her left breast lay Miss Beal, clad in her night robe. Beside her was a revolver.

On the dresser was a novel. It was open and a corner of a page turned down at an illustration portraying a woman dancer, dagger in hand standing over the prostrate form of a man.

Miss Beal was sent to a hospital where tonight her condition was reported critical.

From a statement signed "Peggy Beal" found following the shooting the eternal triangle emerges as a motive for the tragedy.

Anderson and Miss Beal had lived at the hotel as man and wife since Wednesday officers said and for a week previous had lived at another local address. The woman came here about 10 days ago, from Springfield, Illinois, where for five months she had been a nurse in the Open Air Colony. Anderson took her to his rooms and introduced her as his wife. Wednesday afternoon they registered at the hotel. No one at the hotel saw the couple come in and guests say no sounds were heard early this morning except two shots.

Anderson had met Miss Beal while he was a lieutenant in the signal corps and she was a nurse in the east.

Anderson after the war worked in a St. Louis dry goods house. He came to Kansas City three months ago. Anderson was shot in the back of the head as he lay on his side, officers said. He was 33 years old, according to an application for work, filed with the drygoods store, where he was employed. He also stated on the application that he was married. His wife is believed to be in St. Louis.

Lived in New Jersey
COLLINGSWOOD, N. J., June 3.—Frank W. Anderson, shot in Kansas City by Peggy Beal, lived here until eight months ago when he went to St. Louis.
"The boy left here for the west last October," Frank M. Anderson his father, said. "He was married and had a wife living somewhere in Indiana. The body is being sent home. He will be buried from my home in Collingswood." Anderson, who had lived in Collingswood several years with his parents served during the war at an aviation field in Indiana.

Miss Beal, Ill., June 3.—Miss Marie Beal, formerly a nurse in a local hospital, who is alleged to have shot and killed Frank W. Anderson, of Jones Department Store in Kansas City this morning, until six months ago was employed in the Stillwater Sanatorium, Dayton, Ohio. She resided in Arcanum, a suburb of that city. She told friends in Springfield she has no father, mother, brother or sister.

Thousands of Ku Klux Klan Gather

(By The Associated Press)
JOLIET, Ill., June 3.—At least 50,000 members of the Ku Klux Klan gathered in the woods two miles south of Plainfield near here tonight and initiated 3,000 members into the secret hooded organization.
The immense gathering was the greatest spectacle ever witnessed in Will county or in this section of the state, according to witnesses of the giant demonstration.

There was no noise connected with the gathering of the course of people who flocked in to and thru Plainfield from 4 o'clock this afternoon until after 1 o'clock Sunday morning.

The ceremonies of initiation began promptly at midnight and gave promise of lasting well into the morning.

Hot dog stands where soft drinks, cigars and every circus refreshment was served sprang up apparently from nowhere. Bonfires were started here and there seemingly miles apart and the space between was jammed. There was loud talking and laughing but until the ceremonies began there was no sign of organization.

When the fiery cross was hoisted 15 feet into the air and lighted the emblem of the Ku Klux Klan told the people who watched the dim proceedings from a distance what was going on and what was to come. The next instant the white robes were on and the scene took on a weird appearance.

Two autoists who spent nearly the entire evening trying to count the approximate number present reported that they drove past 57 miles of automobiles lined up side by side. Automobiles were still filing thru Plainfield at 1 o'clock this (Sunday) morning.

The spokesman of the Klan announced to the newspapermen that the meeting was the largest ever held in America by the Ku Klux Klan and included the local klans from every city north of Springfield in the state of Illinois. There were a few cars from Iowa, Wisconsin and Indiana.

JUSTICE CAFFERY CHIDES WOMEN FOR CIGARETTE SMOKING

Women Listen Calmly But Continue Puffing
Their Weeds

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 3.—Cigarette smoke clouds blown by feminine mouths curled about the head of Municipal Court Justice William Caffery today as he rallied at members of the National Democratic Club for their "fiendish devotion to the weed."

The justice abhors even the smell of a cigarette. He hasn't much use for a male cigarette smoker and when he sees a puffing woman, he's just got to say something about it.

He attended the Democratic women's luncheon and was intending to speak about politics and the women politicians' errors. Health Commissioner Cope-land was the first speaker and in his address he said:

"If a woman wants to smoke, why not? Bless her soul, let her, she will anyway."

These remarks seemed to be the cue for a free-for-all-puff for about half of the 400 women immediately began to smoke. Justice Caffery fanned some of the blue clouds aside and arose.

The smoking habit was a thing to be denounced, he said, and declared it was people who said "let 'em alone" who were responsible for 90 per cent of the looseness existing in the country.

"Talk about the drug habit and then cigarettes. One's as much of a drug habit as the other."

Women, he said, would drive all the red blooded men out of politics, if they didn't seek reason and tolerance.

"We aren't afraid of women's brains," he added, "but their tongues."

And the women continued smoking.

NEW PHASES ARE DEVELOPING IN WARD MYSTERY

Ward's Wife and Two Servants Have Been Subpoenaed

(By The Associated Press)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 3.—The eighteenth day of the Ward shooting mystery brought three developments.

The first was the discovery in Philadelphia of a wounded man giving the name of John Cienzo of New York, suspected of being the companion of Clarence Peters, alleged to have been shot by Walter S. Ward.

The second development was the discovery that a man known as "Jack" had been established as last Thursday night, at the Mills Hotel in New York where Cienzo claims to have stayed. He was said to have driven up in a red automobile of the same make and color of the car alleged by Ward to have been used by the mysterious "Charlie" Ross and "Jack" when he asserts they met him and Peters at a "blackmailers' trust" near the Kensico reservoir on the night of May 15. It was not definitely established whether the "Jack" seen at the Mills Hotel actually met Cienzo, who it is suspected may turn out to be the real Charlie Ross.

The third development was the announcement that Ward's wife, her two servants and a score of other witnesses had been summoned to appear Monday before the Westchester grand jury.

NO INDICTMENT IN HANNA CASE

(By The Associated Press)
DANVILLE, Ill., June 3.—The May grand jury which adjourned here last night, declined to indict in the case of Miss Gertrude Hanna whose body was found in the basement of an unoccupied church parsonage in Hoopston several weeks ago.

State's Attorney Lewman declined to discuss the case, but it was learned that both strychnine and arsenic were found in the girl's stomach, and that the grand jury obtained sufficient evidence to warrant a continuation of the investigation into the causes of her death.

Drugs from several towns in this county were summoned before the jury in the effort to learn who had purchased poison prior to the finding of the girl's body.

KU KLUX KLAN INITIATES 2,000

Chicago, June 3.—The Ku Klux Klan held an initiation meeting tonight near LaGrange, a Chicago suburb, at which it was announced 2,000 candidates were taken into the organization. Thirty five thousand members attended the gathering according to the announcement.

Newspaper men were invited to attend the ceremony but after the long train of automobiles had gone a few miles from LaGrange, the reporters were told that none but members of the Klan could be present.

CONDITIONAL APPROVAL IS GIVEN OFFER

Ford Proposal Ordered Reported to House
by Committee

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 3.—Henry Ford's proposal to develop the government's vast power and nitrate plants at Muscle Shoals, Ala., was given conditional approval by the house military committee today and ordered reported to in the house with a recommendation that it be accepted in the form agreed to in committee. The action was taken by a vote 12 to 9 in executive session and was interpreted by committee members generally as being in effect but the preliminary skirmish to what promises to become a bitterly contested battle between the proponents and opponents of the Ford offer in the house.

In arriving at its final decision the committee decided to eliminate from the properties covered in the Ford offer the steam plant at Gorgas, Ala., and agreed with W. B. Mayo and J. W. Worthington, representatives of the Detroit manufacturer upon new language regulating the manufacture of fertilizers. In all other respects the Ford offer was fully approved.

Mr. Mayo declared that despite elimination of the Gorgas plant he regarded the results announced as a decisive victory for Mr. Ford and that a more determined effort than ever before now would be made to obtain the properties.

Other developments in congress affecting Muscle Shoals occurred while the committee was in session. The house instructed its conferees on the army appropriation bill to report back to it what decision they reached with the senate on the amendment providing $7,500,000 for continuation of work on the Wilson dam, so that a separate vote might be had.

In the senate agriculture committee Oscar G. Merrill, executive officer of the federal commission testified that the Muscle Shoals projects should be completed and put in operation, preferably by private enterprise. If the government decided to operate properties, Mr. Merrill said he believed the bill by Senator Norris, chairman of the committee probably offered the best method.

The house committee also decided to meet again Monday for the purpose of preparing a report of its opinion of the Ford and other proposals will be submitted to the house membership when the Ford offer is presented, probably early next week. In all probability the committee will advocate the acceptance of Mr. Ford's tender with the Gorgas plant included.

UNION OFFICIALS SUPPORT MINORITY

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 3.—The Chicago and Western General Chamber of Commerce, affiliated with the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and the National Association of Manufacturers, today expressed their support of the minority opinion of the railroad labor board in its decision cutting about $48,000,000 from the pay of 400,000 railroad workers.

The organization held a special meeting here to consider the action of the board, 18 lines being represented.

"We believe that if the public will read the dissenting opinion, they will agree with us that the public group voting with the railroad group did not voice the opinion of the public in cutting wages or maintenance of way employees," A. P. Stout of Chicago, president of the General Chamber of Commerce, said. "We do not believe the wages established by the labor board are either just or reasonable in view of the fact that a large majority of the employees will receive less than two dollars a day under the decision."

MONKEY GLAND DOCTOR RESIGNS

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 3.—Dr. Thomas W. Edgar, New York surgeon who performed the "monkey gland" operation on Irving R. Bacon, a former newspaper man who disappeared several months ago, today resigned from the allied medical association after he had been hailed before the bar of the association at its annual convention yesterday on charges of unethical conduct in giving to the press a paper on his method of transplanting monkey glands to the body of a human being before it was read to the convention. Dr. Edgar had been made a member of the organization for one week in order that he might read the paper. He was found guilty of the charge preferred against him and was forbidden to read it.

Dr. Edgar said that he had given the paper to the press on the understanding that he was to read it at the convention yesterday afternoon but was unable to do so, being called away on important business.

Oskafoosa, Iowa, June 3.—Citizens today voted overwhelmingly in favor of having the municipality acquire the city water works for $230,000 and to issue bonds for $440,000 to build a hydroelectric plant on the Des Moines river and other improvements. The majority for the bonds was about 18 to 1.

SPARKS AGAIN FLY AT INVESTIGATION OF STEEL MERGER

Sharp Verbal Battles Staged by Samuel Untermyer and Mortimer L. Schiff—Disagree on Part Bankers are Taking in the Merger—Witness Refuses to Answer

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 3.—The sparks flew again today at the Lockwood committee investigation of the latest steel merger, with Samuel Untermyer, committee counsel, swinging on the anvil and Mortimer L. Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., flaring in anger at his interrogations. Their verbal fusillade got so hot that Untermyer warned the banker he might go to jail for refusing to answer questions. Schiff intimated that if he did, Untermyer would keep him company.

The discussion centered around the part Kuhn, Loeb & Co. are to take in merging the Republic, Midvale and Inland companies into the North American Steel corporation. Schiff insisted the relationship of his firm was purely one of banking. They were "financially fathering" the enterprise, he said, and were to head a syndicate to underwrite $25,000,000 in preferred stock at $90 and $44,000,000 at $43 and then raise another $20,000,000 in cash to purchase additional Midvale paper.

Untermyer contended that the bankers intended to "create a market" for the stock of the new corporation with the $20,000,000 cash and that they were likely to manipulate prices to favorable levels by buying and selling securities. Schiff called on Chairman Lockwood to make Untermyer cease asking unfair questions. After he had admitted that the bank might both buy and sell the stock, the question that set off the fire works was put to Mr. Schiff.

So that whilst with one hand the syndicate is selling stock to the public with the other hand it is buying stock from the public.

Gets Hot Under Collar.
Schiff said this was not true, because the transactions were not simultaneous and shouted:

"We do not wash stock and I resent that implication."

"All these resentments, you know, don't count," Untermyer remarked. "The facts are what we are looking for."

"Then put the question in the way so that they are facts, and don't twist things," suggested the banker.

"Mr. Chairman you had better warn this witness that he is not in his banking office," said the lawyer.

"And neither are you in your office," came the retort.

"Mr. Chairman," continued the banker, "Mr. Untermyer is trying to put words in my mouth. That we are manipulating stock, and I will not do it. I refuse to answer another question."

Then came the jail threat. In a moment they were at it again, Untermyer insisting that the syndicate was a "buying and selling one" and Schiff agreeing that all syndicates were of that nature but that purchases and sales were not made at the same time.

Senator Underwood, Democrat advocated free trade with Canada by removal of all barriers of commerce and said the Republicans by refusing to put the Canadian general reciprocity law into effect were responsible for high Canadian tariff and resultant loss of trade.

Mr. Underwood declared that Canadian sentiment had charged since a popular vote rejected the Taft reciprocity treaty.

Says It Is Retaliation
Senator Stanley, Democrat, protested against what he said was a policy of retaliation against Canada outlined in the bill.

Fighting the duty of 25 per cent, ad valorem, on fire chrome and bath brick which was approved, he charged that this was written in the bill to placate Senator Gooding, of Idaho, chairman of the Republican agricultural tariff bloc in whose state he said there were two small fire brick kilns employing 109 men.

Senator Gooding replied that it was "un-American" to oppose tariff protection for American industries needing that protection.

Democrats joined by few Republicans opposed the brick and cement to the free list. Originally brick was taxed 25 percent ad valorem and cement five cents a hundred pounds. The Canadian rates are 22 1-2 percent on brick and 11 cents a hundred on cement.

Some experts are figuring that three weeks hence will see a decidedly acute condition with reference to coal supply. After eight weeks of shut down, the country surplus has decreased from 64,000,000 tons to 32,000,000 tons. On the basis of these figures just why is a shortage in three weeks predicted?

There certainly is money in this country seeking for investment. Note the fact that the treasury department recently offered $200,000,000 of government certificates bearing 3 1/2%. The subscriptions received to absorb this issue totaled $375,000,000.

One of the certain signs of better business conditions is the fact that farmers are beginning again to buy automobiles. The time was when they were the best customers, and then they stopped. There were good reasons for the action but the reasons are beginning to disappear.

They are getting real glib in Quincy with the trial of the Greek trackmen. The story comes of tampering with and intimidating the witnesses. That's a real Chicago stunt.

Beardstown has rapidly emerged from the flood conditions of a few weeks since. Visitors say the city has almost a normal appearance except for the fact of unusual activity. More than 300 houses are in the process of repair. But listen—work has actually begun on a paving project several miles in extent.

The public improvement board of Jacksonville would like to know how it is done—peaceably.

In the old commencement days "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy" was a familiar theme. It is indicative of changing times that the essayists and orators of the present choose more practical themes. They are more likely to talk about some work actually done in the school time or some outstanding fact in recent history than they are to talk of philosophical themes.

A big law suit is promised between the downstate land owners along the river and the city of Chicago. It is charged that the excess of water Chicago takes from Lake Michigan for use in its sewage disposal program brought about the flood conditions and consequent damages.

It is a big problem. Chicago may be taking water from the lake to the detriment of other interests, but certainly the flow cannot be restricted until some other way is found for sewage disposal. A sudden change in system would bring greater disaster even than the floods.

A Deatur man is under arrest because of cruelty to his ten year old son. With wire ropes he beat the lad's back almost to a pulp because the boy had not worked enough in the garden to suit him.

Now the father faces at least a heavy fine, with the possibility of imprisonment. Feeling is so bitter against him that he cannot reasonably expect to resume his job in the Washah shops. Now what can be done in a case of this kind? If the father, a wage earner, is imprisoned his wife and five children will suffer, and yet a severe penalty of some kind must be imposed. This is just a sample of the questions that must be considered by court officials in connection with cases of dependency or delinquency.

YOU PAY FOR WHAT YOU GET.

It has often been said "the people pay." The New York Tribune expresses that thought in this very forceful way:

"New York pays for what it gets, whether it is parks or streets, or municipal buildings, or better subway service. If the people do not pay directly, they pay indirectly through taxation. But they pay."

"It is important to bear this in mind in the study of the traction situation.

"The greater part of the difference between the five cent fare and the actual cost of a ride must be paid through taxation, just as parks and streets and public buildings are paid for. Nothing is free; only for a short time can subway costs be loaded on the operating companies.

"Subway and surface fares in New York cost more than five cents not because anybody is grafting, not because inflated or fictitious values of properties or franchises, but because men and materials required for a great transit system cost more than the receipts of five cents a head.

"The citizens of New York appear to prefer to pay for their use of the transit lines partly in fares and partly in taxes. That's their business and such being the case the transit commission intends to fix the fare at five cents.

"But the five cents is only the sum that the subway rider drops into the slot. The remaining two or three or four cents comes out of his pocket when he pays rent or buys food or clothing or anything he requires.

"Nobody but a demagogue would seek to make the people believe that a five cent fare is now an actuality in this town."

"A Game Chicken"

Inez Hastings, daughter of Joshua, has been brought up in Cuba, in the best Spanish traditions of her mother, who wants her to marry Jose Lavendera.

Joshua Hastings is secretly engaged in the rum-running trade between Cuba and his old home in New England, and Jose is his partner. Inez, irrepressible tomboy, dresses as a boy and sneaks out of the house to attend a cockfight. She gets into a melee, and meets Rush Thompson, a young American. She falls in love with and continues to see him, which arouses Jose's jealousy and leads to a fight between Rush and Jose.

To avoid further trouble of this kind, her father sends her to his cousin, Hiram Proudfoot, of Stony Point, Mass. Hiram is the American agent for the rum-smuggling combine, but protects his interests by being also the president of the local Purty League.

Rush Thompson is really an agent of the revenue department looking for the source of contraband liquor. A clew leads him to Stony Point, and Jose follows him there. At the first opportunity, Jose tells Inez that Rush is a hired spy of the Purty League. She therefore despises Rush and betrays him into the hands of the smugglers on their vessel, where she is also made a prisoner by Jose.

The schooner is chased by a destroyer, but loses it in the fog. Out at sea, Jose discloses his true nature and turns pirate, declaring that Inez shall be his queen, and that Rush shall hang from the yardarm. Inez, to save Rush's life and her honor, takes a desperate chance and sets fire to the schooner. There is a big fight, in which Jose is killed. The sub-chaser arrives in time to save the others from death, and Inez and Rush come to an understanding.

POMANDER WALK GREAT SUCCESS

Play Was Presented By Dramatic Club of Illinois Woman's College—Was Witnessed By Large Audience.

"Pomander Walk" presented on the I. W. C., campus last night by the Dramatic Club added a gala note to this year's commencement festivities. The setting was one which demanded much care and ingenuity, five houses, fronting upon Pomander Walk, were managed by means of screens and the taste shown in arranging shrubbery to simulate this retired and park like spot, was convincing without being blatantly realistic.

The club under the direction of Miss Dairs, director of the expression department, deserves much credit for the interpretation given last night. Pomander Walk is a comedy or commonplace life, but the situations made exacting demands upon those in the cast, that the actors were able to meet those demands with assurance and ease is a distinct compliment to Miss Dairs' ability as director and the young ladies' ability as students.

It is impossible to mention individually all who took part, but of especial interest was the work of Dorothy Remly and Verna Mershon, the loveable old man and the loveable young girl. Special credit is also due the characterization of the young lover, played by Verna Heironimus, and the harassed baron by Harriette Keys.

The music was furnished by Grace Terhune, Christine Cotner and Mr. John Kearns. The publicity committee under the chairmanship of Jane Muse did efficient work as did all the other committees responsible for the many details which went to make the play a finished production.

WRITES VERSES WITH LEMON AS THEME

Fred Mayer, who holds a position with the California Fruit Growers association in Los Angeles, recently penned some poetic lines which appeared in the June issue of the California Citigraph. This is a magazine devoted to citrus fruit affairs in the coast state.

The young man's Jacksonville friends did not know that he had ability along this line. The verses may not take first rank in the world of literature but evidently have their value in the commercial world. This is Fred Mayer's "Ode to the Sunkist Lemon."

In days gone by, if you will recall, The time to use lemons was spring and fall;

But now times are changed, you can readily see

The months to use lemons are far more than three.

Of course in the summer when it is so warm

That you'd like to be swimming down on the farm,

A cold lemonade (made with "SUNKIST" of course)

Sure reaches the spot with more than full force,

And then in the winter when everyone's sick,

A hot lemonade is bound to work quick.

When the flu came around, the best thing, it was said,

Was a hot lemonade, then stay in bed.

They took 'way some drinks by some held so dear;

But why should we worry, the lemon is here.

Just squeeze in some water and sweeten to taste.

Believe me there's no danger, it won't go to waste.

So buy 'em and sell 'em to all that you know.

Just keep pushing "SUNKIST." Come on now, LET'S GO!

ILLINOIS U. WINS BIG TEN MEET EASILY

COACH GILL'S TEAM PLACING IN MANY OF EVENTS FAR IN LEAD

Rolls Up Total of 59 6-14 Points as Many Records Fall—Iowa Second, With Minnesota Third—Rathbun of Ames Defeats Wharton of Illinois in Two Mile Event

IOWA CITY, Iowa, June 3.—Scoring in thirteen of the sixteen events, the well balanced University of Illinois team repeated its triumph of 1921 in the Western Conference outdoor track and field championship meet today by winning the meet with an overwhelming total of 59 6-14 points. Iowa was second with 24 1-35 points, Minnesota third with 23 1-10, Notre Dame fourth with 22 13-14 and Ames fifth with 22 points.

Four conference records were smashed, one was tied and Illinois cracked the fifth record in winning the one mile relay race but the mark was not allowed as the Orange and Blue team was disqualified for alleged roughness.

The race was given to Iowa and the time was withdrawn. The Illinois quartet won the race in 3:20 beating the former record of 3:21 4-5 established by Chicago in 1915.

The conference record for the 100 yard dash, which has stood for 19 years was shattered when Bill Hayes, of Notre Dame, former national A. U. dash champion ran the distance in 9 7-10, beating the former record of 9 4-5 established by C. A. Blair of Chicago, in 1905. Hayes won easily but Leon Paul, the Grinnell sprinter, was pressed hard for second honors. Eric Wilson of Iowa took second place.

Milton Angier of Illinois, holder of the American javelin record, who broke the conference record in the preliminaries yesterday with a throw of 135 feet 1 1/2 inches. Hofmann, of Michigan, held the former record of 178 feet four inches, made a year ago.

Harold Osborne of Illinois and Johnny Murphy of Notre Dame who tied for first place honors in the running high jump set a new conference record and came close to an American Amateur record when he went over the bar at 6 feet 5 1-16 inches.

The former conference record of 6 feet 2 7-8 inches was made a year ago by Murphy.

Two Mile Race Thriller. Lloyd Rathbun of Ames, entered the record-breaking class when he won the two mile race in 9:27 after a thrilling race with Wharton of Illinois at the finish. Furness, Purdue star led for the first three laps, being closely pressed by Wharton and Rathbun. Furness found the pace too hot for him and quit as the runners started the final lap. Wharton shot in to the lead, but after coming around the final turn, Rathbun came abreast of the Illinois runner and outgamed him in the last five yards.

C. R. Brooks of Iowa, tied the 220 yard hurdles mark at 23 4-5 in winning that event by a safe margin from Anderson of Minnesota thru a sprint after leaping over the last barrier. Brooks and Anderson came down the field together but the Iowa hurdler had the better finishing qualities.

Arthur Wolters of Ames regarded as the best middle distance runner in the Missouri Valley conference was the highest individual point winner, winning both the 440 and the 80 yard races. Osborne was next in line with 9 1-2 and Paul, the Grinnell sprinter third, with nine.

After beating out Fessenden of Illinois in the 440 yard dash, Wolters came back and scored his second triumph when he won the 880 yard dash in a wild finish. The Ames star was up among the leaders from the start, ran abreast of Yates of Illinois, for several yards and then sprinted ahead, taking the pole just before the last bend. Yates faded out in trying to keep the pole and Higgins also of Ames finished in second place. The time was 1:55.

In the one mile run won by Patterson of Illinois, Ferguson of Ohio State led the field of 14 starters for the first lap and a half, but was passed by Patterson who retained the lead until the finish.

Sixteen teams broke into the table of points. Wisconsin was 6th with 21 16-25; Michigan seventh with 21 2-5; Chicago eighth with 20 3-7; Grinnell ninth with 9 and Ohio State 10th with 8. Purdue had six points; Butler 3 5-5; Indiana 3; Drake 2 and Northwestern 1 3-7.

COACH BURNS' TEAM WINS ITS LAST GAME

I. S. D. Buried Blue Mound High Under Avalanche of Hits—Final Score 13 to 2.

Coach Robey Burns' I. S. D. nine had to rain hits all over Illinois Field yesterday afternoon to win their last game of the season. They swamped the Blue Mound High nine by a score of 13 to 2. They made 14 hits, one of which was a circuit drive, by center fielder Dillard.

Blue Mound's inability to bunch hits with men on bases and their weakness in the pitching staff in the closing innings of the game caused them the loss of the game.

Charley Powers, who started on the slab for Blue Mound was removed from the field in the 7th. He was accidentally injured in the forehead by careless handling of a bat by one of his team-mates. Powers was strong in the pinches, always being able to check an I. S. D. attack when there were men on the paths. His pitching reminded the I. S. D. lads of Molenda, pitcher for the Decatur team, who was too tough to face at the plate.

Blue Mound put across their two runs in the first inning. Roush was safe on an error, Smith flied to Schrader, Deffenbaugh singled to left; Schrader threw over Roush's head to catch Roush at third and Roush went home. Deffenbaugh stopping at second. Deffenbaugh stole third. Miller's slow grounder was fumbled, allowing Deffenbaugh to score. After the first, the Blue Mound boys were unable to score, tho they had men on bases.

The I. S. D. put their first count over in the third. Schrader bunted to left; Miller was hit by pitcher; Schrader stole third; Roush hit to Powers, who threw too low to first, allowing Schrader to score.

In the third Blue Mound had a good chance to score, but a double killing prevented.

Walash and Crow singled; Powers was passed, filling the bases; Roush struck out; Smith hit to Miller, who threw to Massinkoff catching Powers at second and Smith was out at first on Massinkoff's throw to Mannan.

After being unable to find Powers' slants for five innings the I. S. D. scored three runs with four hits in the sixth. The visiting infield made two costly bobbles in this inning, which enables the I. S. D. to score two of the three runs.

In the seventh Deffenbaugh replaced Powers on the slab. The I. S. D. found him easy. They made a murderous slaughter in this inning. Dillard made his circuit smash with two on. Seven runs and eight hits were made. Collins replaced Deffenbaugh on the slab. He looked too little to be a slab man, but he was able to check the slaughter. He retired Massinkoff and Mannan on strikes.

It was the last game of the season for the locals. They have won four and lost the same number. Coach Burns will be Athletic Coach at the local institution again next fall. Football is the next sport they will have, when school opens in September.

SHOWS MORGAN COUNTY RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

Six months ago as a result of our semi annual report of Nursing Service in Morgan County which was featured as the Organization number of Central Division Bulletin, with our nurse's map on the cover, there came a request thru Central Division from the National Health Association that she prepare a large map for display at their big National Convention in Seattle in June. This Conference will include:

The American Nurses Association.

The National Public Health Organization.

The National League of Nursing Education.

American Red Cross Nursing Service.

Army Nursing Service.

Navy Nursing Service.

U. S. Public Health Service.

James D. Smith, an Illinois College student drew a map from scale with school houses marked in it; then Miss Riecke in her leisure hours achieved something unique, showing all activities of public health nursing by means of bright colored circles, stars, crosses, etc. It over tops all her former maps and when viewed Friday evening by the Executive Board, they pronounced it a masterpiece and requested that it be suitably framed and returned to Headquarters to remain as a permanent record of our pioneer work in the county. They also suggested that the map be displayed in a prominent window on the square for the benefit of the public before it is shipped to Seattle.

The map shows our two Jacksonville nurses supported by the school board, the waverly community nurse, financed jointly by the school board, the community and the Red Cross; the remainder of the county presented a large field for one lone nurse. However, in spite of the few handicaps due to lack of vision on the part of one or two rural school board members she has met with surprising success, having in fifteen months fully demonstrated school inspection in the rural communities. She has had strong backing of a large county committee and the Executive Board. Those who have been in consistent touch with Miss Riecke's work, her co-workers, the teachers, and the school children will regret that Morgan County must lose Miss Riecke and their best wishes will go with her into her new field of service.

The map will be on display at the Farmer's State Bank for a few days and the attention of the public is invited to it.

FAMOUS DERBY WINNER DEAD

Old Rosebud Winner of Fortieth Derby Meets With Accident and Has to be Killed—Owner was Superstitious.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The announcement that Old Rosebud met with an accident which forced his owner to destroy him was received with regret by all followers of the thoroughbred sport. But in the Blue Grass the loss of the once great race horse touched a much wider circle than that composed exclusively of followers of the turf.

For Old Rosebud was a true son of the Blue Grass. The time in which he won the fortieth renewal of the Kentucky Derby in 1914—2:03 2-5, still stands as the record for the classic, notwithstanding the sterling thoroughbreds, including Sir Barton, Omar Khayyam, Regent and Morvich, that have gone the mile and one quarter to win the race in the eight years that have passed since the sturdy son of Uncle Ned fielded to the wire at Churchill Downs.

His name has been a household word and the symbol of speed in Kentucky homes for years and persons who never had witnessed a race spoke familiarly of "when Rosebud won the Derby."

Old Rosebud was purchased from John E. Madden by Hamilton C. Applegate and Frank Weir for a trifling sum at a yearling in 1912.

Before meeting with an accident in his early three-year-old form he was probably the speediest race horse this country has ever known. At a two-year-old he ran five-eighths of a mile at Douglass Park in :58 2-5 with 115 lbs. up.

Writing of the death of the great racer, V. Sanders, turf writer and member of the staff of the Louisville Times relates the following incident in connection with a superstition entertained by Mr. Weir that to permit the holder of the Derby record to be photographed would bring bad luck to the splendid animal.

"Just after Old Rosebud had won the Derby, I was assigned by the managing editor of the Times to take the staff photographer to the Downs and get a picture of the horse in action. Mr. Weir threw up both hands and flatly refused me a picture of Old Rosebud saying 'It's the worst luck in the world. I shall never consent to your taking Old Rosebud in any position.'"

"I saw Colonel W. E. Tapplegate father of the half owner of Old Rosebud, and asked him to arrange it. He tried hard to get Mr. Weir to bring the horse out on the course, but to no avail. Finally Colonel Applegate told me that the colt was going to be worked the wrong way of the course the day before he was to be shipped east and if I could have the photographer there he thought there would be a chance to get his picture. We were on hand and Old Rosebud was brought out and given a stiff breeze. The photograph was made, showing his wonderful stride.

"That afternoon he was taken to Belmont Park. In his first race there he practically broke down. Mr. Weir, when he heard that a picture of the colt had been made before he left Louisville attributed his mishap to that fact."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lindsay of Litterberry were down to the city yesterday.

PITCHING IS NOT SO GOOD WOOD SAYS

Once Famous Hurler Declares That There are no Pitchers Like These of Ten or Twelve Years Ago.

CLEVELAND, O.—Commenting on the tremendous hitting by batters in the past two seasons, Joe Wood, veteran Cleveland American Leaguer, who when known as "Smokey Joe" was one of the game's greatest pitchers, said the pitching today is not as good as it was ten or twelve years ago.

"Individually," said Wood, "there are some pitchers equal in ability to most of those eight or ten years ago. But search the two big leagues and see if you can find a Cy Young, a Jack Chesbro, an Eddie Joss, a Mordecai Brown, a Crisley Mathewson, an Ed Walsh, an Eddie Plank, a Rube Waddell, a Bill Donovan or a Walter Johnson. Johnson is pitching today, but he is not the same old Walter who could pitch the ball past you."

"What's the reason? There are two. The success of Ed Walsh, Jack Chesbro and others started a flock of pitchers using the splitter. Others recognized the ability of Russell Ford, Eddie Cicotte, Fred Falkenberg and others to pitch wonderful ball by doctoring the ball and they tried to follow in their footsteps.

"When the powers that rule baseball threw out all the freak deliveries except the splitter, the stock in trade of many a successful pitcher was taken away from him. The limitation of the use of the spitball to those who already were in the major leagues cut down the number of pitchers who could throw that ball effectively. And in the meantime thousands of youngsters on the sand lots and in colleges who had been acquiring success by use of the splitter or doctored balls, found they had been wasting their time. As a result all that bunch failed to come through as they had no legitimate delivery to fall back on.

Melvin A. Traylor

A Rapid Climb Up The Ladder of Success

A plain but successful business man who has risen from the ranks into prominence in a comparatively few years' time will make the address at Illinois College commencement this year. The man is Melville A. Traylor, president of the First Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago.

Mr. Traylor has the name of being a very approachable, matter of fact man. Nevertheless his life story has a touch of the romantic because of his rapid rise in business, from a position of comparative obscurity to the one of large influence and responsibility he now occupies as the directing head of a banking institution with deposits of $75,000,000.

Mr. Traylor on his next birthday will be forty-four years of age, as he was born in Breeding, Ky., in October, 1878, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Traylor, long time residents of that southern community. As a boy he attended the public schools in his home county and in his late teens moved with the family to Hillsboro, Tex. There at twenty years of age he was clerk in a grocery store. Of studious temperament, he took a course in law at night and persevered so well in his work that within a few years' time he was admitted to the bar of Texas. Then he was elected city clerk of his home town of Hillsboro, and subsequently served as assistant county attorney of Hill county.

It was not until 1905 that Mr. Traylor turned his attention toward financial matters and became cashier of the bank of Malone, Tex. Two years later he was made cashier of the Citizens National Bank of Ballinger, Tex., and but a year later became first vice president of that institution. In 1909 the Citizens National took over the First National and Mr. Traylor was elected president of the consolidated institution.

Within two years time he was called to East St. Louis to become vice president of the National Stock Yards National Bank and 1914 found him a vice president of the Livestock Exchange National bank in Chicago and president of the newly organized Chicago Cattle Loan Co.

In 1916 Mr. Traylor was elected president of the Livestock Exchange, succeeding W. A. Heath, who resigned to take a federal reserve position. In the war time Mr. Traylor made a remarkable record directing financial organization and subscription work for the treasury department. So in just about seventeen years' time this man has made the ascent from a position in a country bank away down in Texas to the head of one of the big banking institutions of the second city in the U. S.

What has been responsible for this meteoric but substantial rise? That is the question that naturally arises with a story of this kind. Those familiar with Mr. Traylor's work and character will tell you that his personality has had much to do with his advancement.

He has a remarkable way of making friends and keeping them but needless to say his affability is underlain with entire stability of character. He is of keen intellect, an indefatigable worker, and a good judge of men. He is not spoiled by success and is just as modest, plain and approachable today with a bank of many millions under his direction, as he was in the days when identified with a banking house where assets were listed by thousands or tens of thousands in contrast to the millions of today.

Mr. Traylor's activities are not confined wholly to the First Trust and Savings Bank, as he is also director of the First National bank of Chicago, a director of the Livestock Exchange National Bank, Chicago, of the Industrial bank of New York and Austin-Nichols & Co., New York. He is also a member of the advisory committee of the Central Manufacturing district bank of Chicago and chairman of the finance committee of the National Wool Warehouse & Storage Co. of Chicago, New York.

To read such a formidable list one would not think that this busy financial man ever had time for social life. The proof is not at hand to show just how active his connection, but he nevertheless has membership in the Chicago Literary club, Bond Men's club, Midwestern Country club, South Shore Country club, Illinois Athletic club, Midway club, Iroquois club, Saddle & Siroin club, Bankers club of Chicago, Industrial club of Chicago, Economic club of New York, Lotus club, New York.

The subject of Mr. Traylor's Jacksonville address has not been announced, but one can surmise from the abundant experience of this comparatively young man that he is qualified to talk on most any theme. Be that as it may, Mr. Traylor is certainly an interesting figure in the business world, and is sure to have a worth while message for the Illinois College commencement day audience.

ALUMNI OF BLIND DISCUSS HOME FOR AGED

The opening session of the Alumni association of the School for the Blind yesterday, the question of establishing a home for the aged blind was discussed. Several years ago a member of the association left a bequest of $3,500 for this purpose and now the association purposes to appoint a committee for the further consideration of the project.

George Gerlach, an officer of the association, brought the matter to attention yesterday and there was extended discussion. The committee to be named is expected to formulate and suggest a plan of procedure.

Yesterday afternoon visiting alumni to the number of about eighty were guests at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woolston. The arrangements were of a kind to make this a very pleasant social event.

BEAUTIFUL GARDEN AT DUNCAN MEMORIAL

Quantities of Blooming Flowers Make Garden a Thing of Rare Beauty.

Lovers of flowers would be delighted by the sight of the garden at the Duncan Memorial at this time. The glory of the peonies and iris is past, but in their place quantities of the stately foxglove, like cathedral spires, are blooming. Canterbury Bells and masses of rose colored phlox line the well kept grass walks.

The garden at the Duncan Memorial since its beginning has been in charge of Mrs. Carlton W. Taylor, the results of whose long hours of devotion and intelligent care are just beginning to show. A new bed of hardy chrysanthemums, new beds of tulips, some dogwood trees and other hardy shrubs have been planted this spring.

In the formal garden, which is pathed with stepping stones, beds of verbenas, snapdragons, scabiosa and petunias will a little later lend glory to the garden. The sweet Japanese honeysuckle which grows on the front of the house perfumes the air for quite a distance around. The care and thought which are being expended on this Duncan Memorial, not to speak of the money spent, is making this one of, if not the most, interesting show places of Jacksonville.

Strawberries, $3 crate. Shop Aid, Monday.

Miss Beatie Laurie from Litterberry helped swell the crowd from her home town here yesterday.

Mrs. O. L. Smiley from San Jose was a visitor to the city Saturday.

LOCAL RESIDENTS WED IN ST. LOUIS

Thomas Walsh Jr., and Josephine Gebert Married Saturday—Will Reside in Cincinnati.

The many Jacksonville friends of Miss Josephine Gebert and Thomas Walsh Jr., were surprised to learn of their marriage which was solemnized yesterday in St. Louis. Friends of the young couple received word of the wedding yesterday afternoon and it came as a surprise as their plans had not been known.

The marriage rites were said in the Church of Our Lady of Good Council in St. Louis and Reverend Father Joseph R. Watson officiated. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Newell of this city accompanied the bridal couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gerber of East College street. She is a graduate of Rount College and her attractive personality has made her popular with a large number of friends. Mr. Walsh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh Sr., of West North street and is also a graduate of Rount College. He has until recently been employed with the firm of Tom Duffner in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh left immediately after the ceremony for Cincinnati, Ohio, where they will make their home. Mr. Walsh has accepted a position with a Cincinnati firm.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF NEWSPAPER EDITORS TO BE ORGANIZED SOON

More Than Fifty Executive Editors of Leading Publications Will Meet Soon—The Purpose of the Society is Outlined by Casper S. Yost of St. Louis Globe-Democrat

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The new American Society of Newspaper Editors that has been launched by directing editors of more than fifty of the leading newspapers of the country is to meet a need for a national organization of the executive editors of metropolitan newspapers, according to an explanation of its purposes by its president, Casper S. Yost of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

"We editors—most of us, at any rate," said Mr. Yost, "have not realized, or have only vaguely realized, that we are members of a great and honorable profession which has common interests as well as individual interests. We could not act collectively because we had no means of collective action."

"To visualize newspaper ideals; to set standards of newspaper conduct, which shall not affect that individual independence that is essential to newspaper personality, but which may arouse generous emulation for newspaper progress, to promote the dignity and honor of our profession; to maintain its integrity and its rights, and defend it from unjust attacks; to establish ethical principles whose recognition and observance will contribute to that public confidence which is a newspaper's best asset; to promote the efficiency of our labors thru the interchange of experience and the discussion by which common problems of editorial management may be solved—all these are purposes to which such an organization as we have created can direct its efforts, and in their accomplishment be of great and lasting value to all of us as members of a high profession, of material benefit to the individual newspapers which serve, and increased usefulness for the press as an institution for the promotion of public welfare."

Describing most metropolitan newspaper editors as "anonymous creatures" seldom heard of outside of their own offices, Mr. Yost said they needed to get better acquainted with one another.

Organization of the society was effected in New York April 25 at a meeting in response to a call issued by Edward S. Beck of the Chicago Tribune, Frank I. Cobb of the New York World, Charles H. Dennis of the Chicago News, Herbert R. Galt of the St. Paul Pioneer-Press, Joseph Garretson of the Cincinnati Times-Star, Eric C. Hopwood of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, George E. Miller of the Detroit News and Casper S. Yost of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "Ours," said this call, "is a great and honorable profession, yet, curiously, it is the only important profession not nationally organized." The existence and valuable work of the National Editorial Association was recognized, but this organization it was stated, did not include the larger city newspapers.

The constitution adopted at the meeting in New York declares that it is not the purpose of this society "to take from its members one particle of independence of editorial action." "It is not to be the instrument of any individual or group of individuals."

WHITE HALL BANKS ARE CONSOLIDATED

People's State and First National Bank Consolidated Saturday Under Name of People's First National Bank.

White Hall, June 3.—Announcement is made today of the consolidation of the People's State Bank and the First National Bank under the name of the People's First National Bank. The change will become effective on June 15th, with the following officers: President, H. O. Tunison; Vice President and Chairman of the Board, George North; Active Cashier, Guy Lowenstein; Assistant Cashiers, George Hill, Mary Worcester; Bookkeeper, Lendell Koss.

The combined resources of the two banks on May 5th, 1922 totaled $963,736.71, according to the statements published on that date, divided almost equally. The same parties among the stockholders and directors have so long controlled both institutions that consolidation plans have not been received with a great deal of surprise. The business of the People's National Bank will henceforth be conducted from the present quarters of the First National.

This makes two banking institutions at White Hall instead of three, the White Hall National Bank having resources approaching the combined figures of the two consolidated banks. In a written statement Guy Lowenstein, cashier of the People's State, says:

"The business of the country is drifting to larger and stronger institutions, and we have discussed for months the feasibility of merging the People's State Bank with the First National Bank, thus doubling the capital and surplus, and enabling the new institution to better serve the community. We believe that this combination can be made one of the largest and most useful banks in Greene county."

MACQUEEN COUNTY MAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Joseph H. Thaxton Seventy One Years of Age Sunday—Is Grandson of Pioneer Greene County Resident.

White Hall, June 3.—Joseph H. Thaxton, a resident of Palmyra, Macoupin county, will be 71 years of age Sunday, the information coming to White Hall from the source engaged in establishing the records of Revolutionary veterans buried in the vicinity of White Hall, nine in number. Our subject is a grandson of William Thaxton, who came to Greene county in 1819, settling in the vicinity of Wrights where he died April 5th, 1850. The remains were buried in an orchard on his farm and the grave has long since been neglected. As a result a memorial in his honor will be erected as one of a group of Revolutionary headstones at the White Hall soldiers' monument. The grand son of this Revolutionary veteran, Joseph H. Thaxton, writes as follows:

"My grandfather's name was William Thaxton, and he served in the Revolutionary war. I don't recollect seeing him, as I was born the year he died. I will be 71 next Sunday. I have a brother, Robert Thaxton, residing in Greene county, who remembers grandfather, and I have heard my parents, Dr. Clay and Caroline Thaxton, relate stories of my grandfather's experience in the Revolutionary war. He was in battle where Washington rode up and down the lines in the thick of the fight, giving orders. I vividly remember of hearing them tell how blood and brains from comrades of my grandfather would become spattered over his arms and body, and yet in the numerous battles grandfather received not so much as a wound. My grandfather was buried at my old home in Greene county, west of Hickory Grove church. I am sure there is very little trace of the grave, as I feel that, as I played around it in my youth, Am sorry that the grave should have been so neglected."

KENDALL GOES TO DEKALB MEETING

The executive board of the Morgan County Farm Bureau met yesterday morning in the association headquarters on East State street. At this time it was voted to send County Agent George B. Kendall to the Decennial at DeKalb on June 30th, as a representative of the local Farm Bureau. L. R. Cain and O. A. Rohrer were appointed as members of a committee to make arrangements for the annual picnic of the Farm Bureau. A committee was also appointed to arrange for Farm Bureau Day at the Jacksonville Chautauqua. H. E. Kitner and C. S. Black were named as members of this committee. Following the business session the executive board members adjourned to the Dullap Hotel where they enjoyed dinner.

HUNGARIANS JOIN RED ARMY

BUDAPEST.—At least 10,000 Hungarians taken prisoner by Russia early in the world war have joined the Red army, according to returning Hungarian officers who have just been released by the Bolsheviks. In addition about 60 are officers. In addition thousands of former Hungarian soldiers have taken up life in Russia, many having joined the Communist party.

Labor Disputes Holding Business Back - Babson

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., June 3.—Roger Babson, the statistician, today indicated several of the factors which are responsible for the slowness of business recovery.

"The floods still continue to trouble the South-west," said Mr. Babson. "Nearly four million acres of land are said to be submerged. This tends to delay planting as well as to interfere with transportation and general buying. With the exception of this flood situation and the lateness of spring, the crops are coming along very well. A little scare in the case of cotton will do no harm. Scars do not affect crops but only straighten prices and make for business activity."

"The four industries which are the most active at the present time are the building industries, railroad equipment, public works, and automobile manufacturing. They are industries of a fundamental nature. Not only is development of these industries giving temporary employment, but they provide permanent and productive capital for the country. This is especially true in the first three instances; building, railroad equipment, and public works.

"Very hopeful reports came from the Michigan district. Mines have not been opened for a year or two are now running on full time. Thousands of men in the mining sections are now going back to work, and the whole Michigan district, looks more prosperous. Although the copper situation is still very flat, it is like a man flat on his back. There is only one way he can look and that is upward. Michigan during the next two years is apt to be a very busy state.

"The mill situation in New England is upset. Thousands of people are still out on strikes. Although the side claim decided advantages, statistics are rather in favor of the employers. It is believed that a cut is inevitable, and it is only a question of what the cut will be. When the mills are opened, wage reductions will run from 10 to 20 per cent; although these reductions will do little good unless the workers feel right and are happy. As some mills reopen on an open shop plan, although I believe that in many instances these manufacturers will go back again and deal with the union as soon as business becomes good and help scarce.

"Wage reductions apply not only to the textile industries but to the shoe industries and in some cases to the building industries. The Structural Iron and Steel Workers Union in Syracuse, N. Y., have recently accepted a wage scale of a dollar an hour for all work. I emphasize that these labor conflicts—whichever side may be to blame—are the most important factor preventing business from coming back to normal. Both profits and wages must be cut and all connected with industry from the president of the concern to the office boy must give more service per dollar received.

"The Babsonchart index now stands at 100 percent below normal as against minus 22 per cent as it was at this time in 1921. This chart is really a chart of production and values. To have prosperity people must be at work; to have people at work there must be a demand for goods, and to have a demand for goods, people must be prosperous! Hence, the soundness of the Golden Rule and why we all—whether employers or wage workers—should be interested in having the other fellow prosperous. Yes, 'included the statistician, there is a real connection between religion and business. The sooner we realize it the sooner we'll be back to normal."

FORMER LOCAL MAN TALKED AT ROME MEET

W. H. Stevenson Presented Proposals For Improving Farm Service at Agricultural Institute—American Delegate Soon to Return.

The Paris edition of the New York Herald contains a special dispatch from Rome telling of the opening of the sixth biennial assembly of agriculture. For the past year Professor William H. Stevenson, son of Henry S. Stevenson and son of a former resident of Jacksonville, has been the American delegate to the institute.

Prof. Stevenson is to return to the U. S., at an early date and will resume his work at the Iowa State College of Agriculture at Ames, this fall. The dispatch referred to has local interest from the fact that it makes mention of Professor Stevenson, and quotes his proposals for improving conditions. The article is as follows:

"The opening of the sixth biennial assembly of the International Institute of Agriculture was attended by the King, the cabinet Ministers and the members of the Diplomatic Corps, including the United States Ambassador. The inaugural speeches, including one by the American delegate, Professor William H. Stevenson, dwelt on the importance of the farming interest in helping to cure the ills brought on the world by war and revolution.

Professor Stevenson, who has been here a year as American delegate to the institute, is leaving in the next few weeks to return to the Iowa State College of Agriculture, as his leave at the College expires this year.

"His co-delegates during the assembly are: Consul-General Francis B. Keene, Mr. Nat C. Murray, chief statistician of the Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, Mr. L. G. Gray, economist of the Office of Farm Management; Mr. E. A. Foley, agricultural commissioner stationed in London by the Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates; Mr. Dennis, Commercial Attache of the American Embassy in London; Mr. Louis G. Michaels, consulting specialist of the Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, stationed in Central Europe; Dr. Jacob A. Lipman, dean of the Agricultural College, New Brunswick, N. J.; Professor Hubert E. Van Norman, president of the World's Dairy Congress; Dr. Purley Spaulding, pathologist of the Bureau of Plant Industry; Dr. Herbert H. Kimball, meteorologist of the Weather Bureau, and Mrs. Charlotte Borell Ware, secretary of the executive committee of the Massachusetts Agricultural Association.

Conceived By Americans. "The idea of the Institute was conceived by an American, the late David Lubin, who served for fourteen years as American delegate here. Congress has recently appropriated a total of 60,000 gold francs as the American contribution to the maintenance of the institute.

"In addition to supplying information, the Institute has induced several Governments to install agricultural statistical systems and has rendered notable service in protesting the common interests of farmers by encouraging the protection of useful birds, extending field experiments in dry farming, promoting the adoption of rural credit systems and aiding the organization of an international system of controlling plant disease.

"A vigorous discussion is expected on the proposal to be put forward by Professor William H. Stevenson for the use of the English language in the publication of the International Year Book of Agricultural Statistics, a very large share of the information contained therein being supplied by English-speaking countries. Hitherto it had been published in French.

"Other American proposals are: to urge all the Governments to take decennial censuses of acreages in different crops and numbers of live stock; that information be distributed more promptly, and that statisticians be deputed to visit the different countries."

Albert Aring, west of Chapin, visited the city yesterday.

Miss Martha Lehman will leave Sunday afternoon for St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Fox and daughter Miss Isabelle, accompanied by Mr. Wickham of Winchester motored to Petersburg Saturday to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Harris Robinson.

COMMENCEMENT AT NORTHWESTERN U.

EVANSTON, ILL.—Commencement exercises of Northwestern University will be held Monday morning, June 12th, in the university gymnasium, with Chase S. Osborn, former governor of Michigan, the speaker.

The baccalaureate service has been arranged for Sunday afternoon, June 18, the sermon to be delivered by Bishop Thomas Nicholson. Alumni day will be Saturday, June 17, and the Northwestern University Alumni Association, of which George D. Dalrymple of Chicago is executive secretary, is preparing for a large turnout of "old grads." The five year classes from 1872 to 1917 are making preparations to be present as nearly 100 percent as possible, it was stated.

Miss Gladys Hembrough of Murphysville was a city arrival yesterday.

TRANSPORTATION IS NOW OPEN FOR BOATS ON RUSSIAN RIVERS

Will be of Great Help in Shipping Food Supplies by the American Relief Expedition—New Diseases Appearing With Approach of Warm Weather—Cholera on Increase

(By The Associated Press) LONDON.—Russian rivers are now open to the transportation of American Relief Administration supplies, and the transportation problems which faced the organization in Russia last winter are nearing solution, according to cable advices received at London headquarters.

Food shipments are being made on both the upper and the lower Volga in larger quantities and with more speed than in the past, and tributary rivers, now open, make it possible to penetrate to more remote districts.

Meantime the spring break-up is revealing in all its horror the aftermath of the terrible winter hunger. At Akhtubinsk 10,000 bodies of famine victims have been washed up by the floods on the Hairpin bend of the Elek River. New diseases also are appearing. There is some small-pox, and a great deal of scabies, trachoma and dysentery, but the medical department of the American Relief Administration reports a decided improvement in both children and adults as a result of American rations.

American corn is proving more than satisfactory. It yields 17 percent more in the grinding than the native variety, and when boiled gains from five to six times in weight.

Cholera is increasing in many sections of Russia as the spring advances, but the medical officers of the American Relief Administration, acting in concert with the Russian Health Department, hope to check the epidemic speedily in the regions where the American Relief Administration is working.

Eight million doses of anti-cholera vaccine, from America will be used and American Relief Administration directors at several points in the famine regions, are educating the population in cleanliness by granting rations only to those refugees who will work to clean the camps.

Messages describing the actual distribution of American relief set forth that on the banks of the Nral River, on the borders of Asia, refugees and peasants on receiving the American ration, lose no time in cooking it. The river banks soon are black with little groups sitting happily about an improvised pot in which the first real food they have had for months is boiling merrily.

The corn is issued in the raw state and is received in bags, aprons and knotted coatsleeves "with all the obsequious graciousness and gratitude which seems characteristic of the Russians."

"Mortars and pestles of every conceivable prehistoric styles and shape were improvised," the message says, "for the purpose of grinding the grits and in one hour the meal was boiling over numerous fires. So ravenous were some of the beneficiaries they could not even wait for these preparations to be made, but munched the grits whole."

Six hundred and fifty thousand people are now receiving the American ration in the Khirgiz and Bashkir republics, of which Orenburg is the capital. This has been one of the worst famine districts and not long ago the people in some sections had become so violent that an order was issued restricting the townfolk to their homes after eight o'clock. Murder for the purpose of acquiring clothes and food had become common and reports of cannibalism were widespread.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

The procession on baccalaureate Sunday, instead of forming at Westminster church, as previously announced, will form at the College gate. If the weather should be unpropitious, the procession will form at the church as previously announced. All trustees, faculty members, graduating class, students, alumni, and alumnae, are expected to take part in this procession. They should be at the college gate promptly at 10:30 Sunday morning, June 11th.

Dr. Rammelkamp attended a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois State Historical Library on Friday.

The class of 1912 is definitely proceeding with its plans to observe its tenth anniversary reunion this coming commencement.

The Reverend Clyde L. Hay '97, of Chicago, has written that he is definitely planning to attend the commencement exercises this year.

Two new features will be added to the commencement events this year. One is the concert by the college band on the evening of Osage Orange Day, and the other is the public meeting of Phi Delta Sigma, the new honorary scholarship society. Dr. David S. Schaff, the baccalaureate speaker, has kindly consented to deliver the address before Phi Delta Sigma. This open meeting will be held on Tuesday morning of commencement week.

The annual Junior Oratorical Contest will be held on Saturday evening, June 10th, in the Jones Building at 8:00 o'clock. The following have entered the contest: Orville Foreman, Bernard Frazer, William Headen, Harry Howard, Irving LaRue, and Elmer Nickel.

The final examinations began Saturday morning. Due to the very large classes in English and Philosophy, these examinations were held in the David Prince Gymnasium.

The sophomore mathematics contest was held Saturday. Fifteen students entered the contest. The winner of the contest will be awarded the Smith prize in Mathematics, which has a value of $12.50.

On Monday evening, May 22nd, a Newton Bateman Memorial school was dedicated in the city of Chicago. It is evident that other cities as well as Jacksonville, hold the memory of Newton Bateman in high regard.

Among the class of freshmen who will enter Illinois College next fall will be a large number of boys and girls who have had brothers and sisters in Illinois College.

Franklin Scott '22 and Monarch Davis ex '24 of Springfield were visitors on the campus Friday.

Do you remember our 4th of July celebration, if so patronize our bazar Monday June 5th, 1 to 9 p. m., Jacksonville State Hospital, main amusement hall, given for benefit of our celebration this year.

Monarch Davis and Leon Ferriera of Springfield were in the city yesterday visiting friends at Illinois College. Both are former students at the college.

CONSERVATORY NOTES

The graduation recital, held last evening in Northminster church, was well attended, and passed off most creditably for both faculty and students. At the close of the program teacher's certificates were presented by President Rammelkamp to the following students: In piano, Misses Mildred B. Fredlin and Neva Oval Windmiller; in voice, Miss Esther Duncan; in public school music, Misses Anna Frances Bradley, Mildred Fredlin, Josephine Conboy, Blanche E. Tripp; in expression, Miss Grace Pond.

The Conservatory closes its school year on Saturday, June 10th. Mr. Kritch will remain in Illinois for a month or more, his plans for the remainder of the vacation being still indefinite. Mr. Munger expects to sail for England with his sister, Mrs. Little, there to join Norman Little, who is a Rhodes scholar at Oxford. Mrs. Bullard will remain for a time in Jacksonville, as will Miss Pires and Miss Sorrells. Mr. Quast will be in Chicago much of the summer. Miss Armstrong will be at her home in Gerlaw, Mrs. Foreman in Kane and Mr. Beebe in Springfield.

At the baccalaureate service, to be held next Sunday, June 11th, in Westminster church, Messrs. Kritch and Quast will give solos.

REPORT OF HI Y CAMP

Meredosia, June 2.—Well, our camping week is almost over. The last three days have been so chilly there has been very little swimming. Instead, we have taken to baseball. The camp is divided into two teams, Putnam's White Sox and Hopper's Green Sox. There were two games yesterday, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. The White Sox won the first game and tied the second.

Right after the afternoon game, John Elden brought up his launch, the "Red Wing," and took us seven miles up the north end of the bay and south to the Meredosia bridge. Even on little motor boats there are shocking things to be seen, as C. Souza and Ed Moy learned when they touched the spark plugs on the engine. With the current supplied by these plugs we had a good deal of fun.

We had as visitors yesterday, Harold Hopper's mother, sister and brothers; Earl Tilton, George Walls, Dick Arnold, Ned Parker, Russell Cummings and Martin Graef.

At night a number of our gang went up to see the steamer G. W. Hills come in, and with Tilton, Walls, Arnold and Parker, Hopper, Moy and Corbridge stayed on it to enjoy the excursion it afforded them.

Those who did go up to watch the boat in missed a good camp fire pow-wow. The subject of the aforesaid pow-wow was "Personal Work," taken from John 12:1-23.

Before sleeping the orchestra assembled and Souza, to the gentle strains of "Turkey in the Stra" gave us a real old fashioned clog dance.

The theme of the devotional discussion was the "Difficulties and Rewards of Prayer." At round table this morning Gutekunst, Danskin, Bentley and Mr. Finley received the slaps.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE
NOTES

Unusual interest centers in the visit of Miss Ada Hess from the State Department of Vocational Instruction. Miss Hess came over from Springfield by invitation of the college to check up the work offered in Home Economics and allied branches. Arrangements were made with the State Department of Vocational Instruction through Miss Hess, so that any young woman wishing to teach Home Economics under the Smith-Hughes Act can arrange her course accordingly. A special bulletin is being gotten out on the subject and will be available in a few days.

One of the Commencement events was the Belles Lettres luncheon which was held at the Colonial Inn Saturday at 1:30. A great many of the former students and graduates belonging to that Society were present. A more extended account appears in another column of the paper.

Mrs. Mary Hardner Blackstock of Springfield, one of the trustees, arrived at the college Saturday to attend the Commencement exercises and the Board of Trustees meeting on Monday.

Senator James E. MacMurray, president of the Board of Trustees, will arrive early Sunday to take part in the closing exercises.

One of the closing events of the college is the College Sing which will be held on the campus this evening right after the evening meal. This will be in charge of the Glee Club. The Sing is always an interesting feature of the school year and will attract many visitors and guests.

The Dramatic Club will present a most delightful play tonight on the campus entitled, "Pomander Walk."

The Baccalaureate services will be held at Centenary church at 10:45 Sunday morning. The sermon will be preached by President Harker, his subject being, "How God Measures Our Love to Him." All students, Alumnae, and ex-members of the various classes living in Jacksonville and adjacent towns are cordially invited to meet at the college and march to the church in procession.

Miss Austin, Dean of the College, was the hostess at a delightful afternoon function Wednesday afternoon given in honor of the members of the Senior Class. Miss Mary Johnston, the Senior Faculty advisor, and Dr. and Mrs. Harker were special guests of the occasion. Miss Mary Rose Adams sang a group of songs and Miss Margaret Merker played a number of piano selections.

Mrs. Mark Hunt of Quincy is a guest at the college, for Commencement events.

Thomas Boyd of Salem vicinity made a call yesterday.

Golden Text: The Word of Our God shall stand forever. Isaiah XL 8.

Jehiokim Tries to Destroy God's Word.

Jehiokim is a type of the sinful soul asserting itself in terror and wrath against the righteous judgments of God. His fate is a terrible example of the folly of doing so. A merciful Providence had given him every opportunity of repentance. God had allowed him to be dethroned, put in irons, his face set toward Babylon. Then came an unexpected reversal of fortune — liberation and re-enthronement. God's hand ought to have been recognized, but was not. Neither severity nor goodness affected his obdurate heart. In the present instance the threatening prophecies, so lately and publicly read, could not long, in the nature of things, be secreted from the king. But his courtiers approached him with consummate skill. They left the scroll behind. Lest the very sight of it should inflame him. They secreted the prophet and his amanuensis, lest the king in his rage should kill them. They attempted to break the "burden" of the prophet in the softest manner possible, in hopes that his stubborn will would yield and disaster be averted. The king was seated in the winter residence portion of the palace, which was itself the target for the prophet's shafts — a house with specious apartments and airy balconies, celled with cedar, painted with vermilion, but built with enforced and unrequited labor. The strategy of the nobles availed nothing in this instance. The king was in a passion at once. He demanded to see the scroll. When three or four columns were read he could endure no more. In spite of the entreaties which his princes had the courage to make, with the deliberation of an implacable malice he prepared to destroy the parchment. Taking a scribe's knife, sharp for mending pens and making erasures, he began cutting the odious document into shreds, and kept dropping it piece of paper into the brazier of live coals and waiting till each had shriveled up before he dropped another, until the whole was consumed.

He would have dealt in the same manner with Jeremiah and Baruch if he could have laid hands upon them. But how secure are they whom the Lord hides! Doubtless the king congratulated himself upon the total destruction of the hateful writings. How brief the respite. The scroll was a phoenix. It rose from its own ashes. Not a syllable was wanting. And there were terrible additions, to the effect that the king should be entirely desolate, that no descendant of the king should permanently sit upon his throne, and that his corpse should meet a fate peculiarly revolting to the Oriental mind.

Present Day Applications.

The sacrifice of a king two thousand five hundred years ago when he wantonly destroyed the Bible shocks those who read of it today. But it is an open question whether his sin is so unique except in its spectacular character. Neglect is the knife which cuts the Bible to pieces today. Disregarded is the fire that burns it. Was there ever more habitual negligence than now?

Better Friendships.

(Consecration Meeting)

Genuine worth is the only irremovable foundation of friendship. All else is shifting sand on which whatever is built is sure to fall. Championship which rests on the accidents of wealth or social or official position are shadows which fade when that which casts them is removed. But mortal qualities in the soul, discerned and appreciated at their true worth create a fellowship unaffected by change of fortune. The pleasures and profits are compounded as time passes and are shared by other parties alike.

PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

Movement of eggs in producing sections is normal for this season of the year, but the quality is showing more uneven each week, due to weather conditions.

To obtain the highest market for eggs, producers should give careful attention to and are urged to follow the suggestions of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which are—

1. Produce infertile eggs by removing the roosters from the flock in the summer time.
2. Provide clean nests and keep eggs clean.
3. Do not wash eggs.
4. Gather the eggs twice daily during the summer, to prevent them from being heated by the hen.
5. Keep them in a cool, dry place, away from fires.
6. Market them at least twice each week.

The movement of both live hens and broilers is on the increase. The demand for both, however, is good and conditions point to good values being paid, altho as the new crop of broilers increases, both in quantity and size, the market will seek lower levels.

All indications are that the production of butter in the United States in the next few weeks will be the heaviest known.

The demand, however, is very good, both for current use and for storage purposes, and the prospects are for favorable market conditions.

SPINK, STRAWN & SPINK

We Pay Our Claims

THE CHAPIN HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

To the Editor of the Journal:

In reply to the article in the Sunday Journal will say, we agree with the board that the district was organized at the peak of high price, at a time when no one considered cost. This was probably the case with the ten other small districts, which are probably trying to correct the error they made the same as we, by enlarging their territory, or trying to.

Professor Hess and another went to a certain party in Chapin and said to that party: "See here we know our territory is too small." We agree with you on that; now let us see that if we can get together on this matter and all work together to get it larger. This party said "all right, I am with you. Those opposing the continuance of the present small territory are ready and willing to do anything to get the territory enlarged and will gladly work with you to that end. Prof. Hess promised to do all he could to help get the larger territory. I ask Prof. Hess to fall in line and make good."

For the three years past the High School tax has averaged 97 cents instead of 16 cents on the one hundred dollar valuation. The statement that 60 percent of all taxes was on farm land is by no means all the farmer has to pay. It takes nearly as much personal property to begin farming in a first class manner now as the value of a small farm amounts to.

The board states that the remodeling and furnishing the French house saved the district $20,000 or $25,000. Now it cost us $21,000 and saved us $20,000 or $25,000 we are either $1,000 to the bad or $4,000 to the good. We will call it an even break. According to these figures we won't be losers, if it was not reduced.

The Board says that to secure a larger district it is not necessary to discontinue this district. It is true they say that at the present time there is no provision for enlarging of districts. But they say the State Superintendent fully expects the next legislature to provide for the enlarging of school districts.

We are undertaking to enlarge this district by the only means in existence. If we delay Arenzville will take what we need on the north and possibly Jacksonville on the east and Winchester on the south. Now we have the only opportunity we will ever have of getting sufficient territory to make it worth while, and reduce our taxes to such an amount that will make it easy for everybody, and thus enable us to build a suitable building and maintain a first class school. Why, we ask, does the board object to a larger territory.

Do not go too strong on what the superintendent expects. The people in Beardstown expected the levee to hold, but what happened? This expected law to be passed will only enable the district to be enlarged by making a request to come in, and I think a man would be foolish to request to come into so small a territory as this and they would not do it. The Board is wise to this fact. What we want is 64,000 acres instead of 16,000 and reduce our tax to one fourth what it is now.

The Board reminds us by naming ten of the smallest districts in the state that Chapin is not the only small district. While ten other districts have made the same mistake that we did, we do not consider it a credit to ourselves or to them to stand by and recognize mistakes. But it is honorable to correct a mistake at all times. The Board forgot to tell us what prices the principals of these small districts are receiving.

The majority in every community want a high school. Now, if we vote this small district out there is no doubt but that we can vote the larger one in if we will all work together for this purpose. We have the assurance of a solid vote of those in the small district and this, together with the vote outside the small district will carry overwhelmingly without a doubt.

Prof. Hess says the present building is already too small; that more room is now needed, so we will soon have to build.

Take warning voters! Should it become necessary to build a new building in this small district we will never be able to vote the bonds. While with the larger district of 64,000 acres it can be shown how the taxes will be reduced and there will be no trouble in voting bonds with a larger territory of such size that will enable us to build a respectable building adapted and arranged for school purposes and maintain a good school and go on identifying without being a burden to anyone. Everybody fall in line and work together to get this 64,000 acres while it is possible to get it—delay in this matter means loss to us forever. And we will be surrounded in such a way that we can never increase our territory if we do not do it now.

From every viewpoint the High School and education is the most important problem that confronts the people in this and every other community. It takes money to support a High School, hence it is necessary to have farm lands enough to tax, so the tax will not be burdensome, otherwise you will defeat the very object you are seeking to accomplish.

The only thing to do is for everybody to get together on this question and vote the present small district out, and then let us all get together and vote the better and larger territory in. It can be done and we are going to try our best to do it. We will then have four times as much railroad in our territory, four times as many acres, four times better advantages, ten times better buildings at one-fourth the cost to

The response to this call was remarkable for the unanimity of interest and sympathy expressed by the editors of nearly every important newspaper in the country, according to Mr. Yost. Besides those newspapers represented at the New York meeting, assurance of co-operation came from editors of about forty other leading dailies. Those at the meeting were in hearty accord with the expressed purposes of the organization and every one signed up as a charter member of it.

The Constitution unanimously adopted provided for the election by the members of a board of directors of eleven members, who should in turn elect the officers from their own number. The following directors were elected for the first year:

Directors Elected.

E. C. Hopwood, Cleveland Plain Dealer; E. S. Beck, Chicago Tribune; George E. Miller, Detroit News; Frank I. Cobb, New York World; H. R. Galt, St. Paul Pioneer-Press; Joseph Garretson, Cincinnati Times-Star; Carr Van Antwerp, New York Times; Casper S. Yost, St. Louis Globe Democrat; John L. Sprague, Philadelphia Public Ledger; Edgar B. Piper, Portland Oregonian; Arthur Crook, Louisville Times and Courier Journal. This board of directors elected Casper S. Yost, of the St. Louis Globe Democrat, President; Frank I. Cobb, of the New York World, first vice-president; Edgar B. Piper, of the Portland Oregonian, second vice president; Eric C. Hopwood, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, secretary, and E. S. Beck, of the Chicago Tribune treasurer.

The board also divided the country into seven districts and appointed a regional governor for each district as follows: Northeastern, James T. Williams, of the Boston Transcript; Eastern, Herbert Bayard Swope of the New York World; Southern, John S. Cohen of the Atlanta Journal; Central, E. S. Bross of the Indianapolis Star; Southwestern, George Bailey of the Houston Post; Western, H. E. Newbranch of the Omaha World-Herald, and Pacific, S. Benton of the San Francisco Examiner.

Membership in the American Society of Newspaper Editors is restricted ordinarily to the directing editors of daily newspapers in cities of 100,000 population or over, but the board of Directors is empowered with authority to admit editors of daily newspapers having the interests and qualities of metropolitan papers in cities of less than 100,000 population, and also to admit to membership newspapermen who are not directing editors but who have distinguished themselves "notable contributions to the public service or to the profession of journalism." The term "directing editors," includes "editors-in-chief, editorial editors and managing editors having immediate charge of editorial and news policies."

AH, MR. TRUE, I WANT TO SHOW YOU A SAMPLE OF WHAT I CAN DO WHEN I PUT MY MIND TO IT. I HAVE COMPOSED A POEM ON SPRING.

THE CHAPIN HIGH SCHOOL

Editor Journal:

As the legal voters of the Chapin Community high school No. 120 will soon be called upon to decide the question whether they will retain the present high school district containing about sixteen thousand acres of land or whether they will support the proposition of forming another and larger district containing sixty-four thousand acres of land, I as a farmer and taxpayer of said district would like to say a few words before the curtain is drawn in the last act of the drama. In the first place we should understand the issue clearly and honestly. We farmers are not trying to abolish this High School. The school is a good thing if its affairs are wisely managed by a competent board. It is a conceded fact by all thinking people of our community that the acreage of the present district is entirely too small to support the school without being a great financial burden. The farmer who carries the big end of this burden wants a larger district and he is taking the only legal course he can to accomplish this purpose.

We made an effort to get a vote on the formation of the big district first, but found the law would not let us do it. We have now voted on the small district first and then vote on the large district after. The situation in brief is this, the farmers who have petitioned for the vote have pledged themselves to vote for the formation of the new proposed district. Now if the legal voters residing within the corporate limits of the Village of Chapin will vote the same way, this will constitute a majority of all the votes residing in the boundaries of the new proposed district. This insures the formation of the large district. Our school tax then will be about 1-4 of what it is now. Our school tax at present is 91 cents on the 100 dollar valuation of your property. Next year all residents living in the boundary of the grade school and the high school will pay a school tax of one dollar and seventy-five cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of your property. Ask your township treasurer if this is not true. And for the year following you are going to pay a still larger school tax. We ask all taxpayers to investigate the present financial condition of the grade school and the high school. It will furnish food for thought.

Now, we wish to say here that in addition to the people who have called for this election, we have the promise of many persons living in the boundaries of the new proposed district, many of them heavy tax payers, some in north, south and east part of the district, who will vote for the new district as the low tax appeals to them, and they

We cannot agree with the gentleman who wrote the second article published in your paper in which he stated, that Mrs. Henniger would be much displeased to have the present district dissolved and one four times larger take its place. She merely stated she would not pledge herself to an election to redivide the property, as such an act on her part might be construed as favoring the call for an election. We think she was wise in so doing, but if the formation of the large district becomes an assured fact, I am satisfied that there will be no trouble about the deed because I believe she is sincere in wanting to leave the property as a memorial to the memory of her father and mother.

A district supported by sixty-four thousand acres of land is a much better memorial than one supported by sixteen thousand acres of land. We hear the statement frequently that if this is voted out we will lose the school house and site. My answer to this is it is impossible to lose something that you do not own or acquire in a legal way. Now in reading over the deed made by Mrs. Kossinger and her husband you will find the following promises which are practically a vendor's lease. First they, the school board, must pay the sum of $500 a year annually for a period of five years to be used in improving the ground. Second, they must keep the building insured for a reasonable amount. Third, they must make an annual report each year at the end of the fiscal year, sharing the income from all sources to the district and an itemized statement of all expenses of the district and that said report shall be published in one of the county papers. This last requirement has never been complied with. While it is true that upon a piece of white paper tacked up near the door of the town hall on election day was an abbreviated and much condensed report of the expenses of the school, this does not comply with the requirements of the deed. The board by their neglect have already forfeited all legal claim to this property. Now in the first report they made they placed opposite the —merchandise, a sum representing several hundred dollars. Such is not an itemized report.

We feel the pressing necessity of enlarging the size of our district so long as the board continues to pay a larger salary to our principal than many of the superintendents and principals of the large schools and colleges of the state are getting. We call your attention to a few. The superintendent of city schools at Peoria, Ill., gets a salary of $275 a month for a nine months term. Our man's contract is for $3600. The term being the same, makes his salary average $400 dollars per month. We beat the Peoria man $125 a month. Our old friend Prof. Test, who was our principal here for seven years is again employed for another year, as superintendent of a large school containing about 360 pupils and nine teachers under him. His salary is $2500 a year and our man beats him $11000 a year on the salary. The superintendent of one of the largest colleges of its kind in the state of Illinois and not far from us, gets a salary of three thousand dollars a year. Our man beats him $600 a year in the salary. Now we can cite numerous other instances of this kind, showing the unreasonable salary paid the principal here, compared to the salary paid the principals of much larger schools.

Will close the salary question by asking for information on one question: The records of our school trustees show that our principal here received the sum of $600 for the month of July and August previous to the commencement of his school in September, last year. What service if any, did he render to the school district during these two months for the $600 he got of the taxpayers hard earned money? Now we hear reports that this election is called to abolish the school. We say this is absolutely false. It is called to place the school on a more solid basis and that will not be a financial burden to any one.

Now we hear reports circulated that if we vote out the present district we can not vote in another for a period of two years. This is absolutely false as we have had this matter looked up by one of the ablest lawyers in Jacksonville, who tells us we can proceed immediately after the small district is voted out. Petitions are already prepared for this purpose. Now if the town people co-operate with the farmers in this effort, there need be no fear of establishing the large district as the history of all these school elections shows a majority in favor of the school. We find a sentiment of some in town to ignore the farmer. I will ask you to subtract what the farmer does for the village of Chapin and see what is left. I mean by this, what he pays out yearly to the professional man, to the laborer, to the mechanic and to this business man within your gates. Now the farmer is going to do his duty towards getting a large high school district here. Will you do yours?

ALBERT UHNKEN.

Since writing this article, we have read the article published in your Sunday paper purporting to come or at least emanate from our high school board here. I regret I have not the time to make a full reply to all the statements made in said article, but will reply to one which I regard as the most important to the taxpayer. The statement is made that the Wabash and Burlington railroads pay approximately one tenth of the entire community high school tax. Now this may look plausible and be accepted by the man who lets some one else do his thinking, but the statements are not true, because the railroads figure that they must have a certain percent of income on all their stock or investment, over and above all their expenses. They figure the salary of all agents, section hands, incidental expenses of the offices, tax and officials. Then they place their freight rate and passenger rates high enough to cover taxes and all other expenses of operating the road and leave them a certain percent of income from their stock. Now the farmer, who more than anyone else, is the receiver and shipper of freight, is the man who pays this school tax in the end and not the railroads. Now the merchant also figures in all that overhead expense which are added, in part, as the cost of the goods. So the customer which are mostly farmers, in the long run, pay it all.

STOCK MARKET HAS IRREGULAR SESSION

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, June 3.—The week-end session of the stock exchange opened with another bullish demonstration in the oil division but the market's tone soon became irregular on mixed purchases and sales of those issues.
Spectacular features of the previous day, especially California Petroleum and several of the Standard Oil group, reacted one to three points, while Mexican Petroleum and Royal Dutch
Shell Trading gained 4 points.
Similar confusion of movements occurred among the steels, equipments, motors and other leaders of the industrial division.

United States Steel failed by the smallest fraction to duplicate its recent maximum but Crucible, Midvale and Republic especially the latter were under constant pressure.

Studebaker again led the motors and many subsidiaries of that type strengthened as a result of favorable trade conditions. Rails in desultory fashion.
Sales amounted to $80,000 shares.

Despite the less assuring cables from abroad, foreign exchanges were firm to strong, sterling making yet another new high on the sale of demand bills at 4.48, German marks were easier.

Loans and discounts of clearing house banks showed another expansion of about $17-000,000 and the actual cash gain of $8,000,000 increased excess reserves to slightly over $26,000-000 as against the $5,500,000 of the previous fortnight.

Most Liberty bonds held at yesterday's levels.

Total bond sales (par value) aggregated $6,843,000.
